Executive Director Kim Vickers acknowledged Chief Mike Heidingsfield from the University of Texas System Police and thanked him for coming to the meeting. Executive Director Vickers announced staff changes and the new employee was introduced. Executive Director Vickers talked about the TCOLE Training Conference. The conference will offer training sessions and special focus sessions. As of last week, there were 634 registered for the conference. Legislative changes now require elected constables to take Civil Process training. The provider chosen to provide the training is the Justice Court Training Center. Commissioner Hester asked about how we finished the fiscal year. Director Roth gave an overview of what was done in the previous fiscal year.

Enforcement and Special Services Director Michael Antu stated that the Basic Peace Officer Course has been released. It will become mandatory to use April 1st. The Telecommunicator course will be released in the next few weeks. The VAWA grant will be closing out this month. The goals of the grant were met. A provider has been found to reestablish the My TCOLE Account. There is not a definitive date that it will be back online. A new vendor is being looked at for a new Learning Management System.

Credentialing and Field Services Director Kenny Merchant noted that the number of non-compliant licensees is expected to be around 1,000 after all rosters are entered. There have been several updates to documents on our website as a result of legislative changes.

Government Relations Director Gretchen Grigsby noted that the Sunset evaluation process has begun. Our self-evaluation report has been turned in. The School Marshal process continues with 2 providers conducting the training. A School Marshal day was held in College Station for legislators and media. There were 26 attendees.

Commissioner Atkins made a motion to accept the reports as presented. Commissioner Burruss seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Agenda item #5, Consideration for cost reimbursement for court reporter and transcript under TCOLE rule §223.5.

This agenda item was not addressed.

Agenda item #6, Request to rescind the permanent surrender of Frank S. Stilley.

General Counsel John Beauchamp reviewed the basic facts of the case and the background of permanent surrenders. Executive Director Vickers spoke about the decision making process that leads to decisions on permanent surrenders and the background of the case. Attorney Greg Cagle, Assistant Chief Carl Shaw, and Constable Alan Rosen spoke on behalf of Frank Stilley. No motion was made and no action was taken on this request.

The Commission took a break from 10:26 – 10:45 a.m.
