

WE'RE HIRING

PREVENTION | PREPAREDNESS | PROTECTION

We are currently accepting applications for a POLICE OFFICER.

Well-qualified candidates can earn $65,500 or higher commensurate with experience.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

offers deliberate and caring services to patients, visitors, workforce members and students using industry standard tools and techniques, not only to respond to and investigate crime and disorder on-campus, but also to actively prevent problems before a crime occurs. This focus on prevention is through an individual health and institutional wellness approach to threat management. Through threat management, ideal officers seek to educate workforce members and students about early indicators of behaviors of concern.
