
JACK COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

The Jack County Sheriff's Office is looking for motivated K-9 Officer to join our team!!!

Deputies of the Jack County Sheriff's Office are responsible for patrolling approximately 920 square miles and responding to a variety of calls in multiple communities located in Jack County. Deputy's work schedule allows for them to be off every other weekend, 12-hour shifts. With our schedule Deputies only work six months out of the year.

The Jack County Sheriff's Office's starting pay is $52,725.00.

Jack County has paid vacation and 14 holidays a year including the employees' birthday. (you get all 14 even if you are scheduled off.)The county also has retirement benefits through TCDRS.

Jack County provides employees with the following:

Health insurance and the employee may add their family to their insurance at a reduced rate.

Uniforms, weapons (Glock 17 with TLR1 Light) (Daniel Defence SBR/ AR15), ammo, holsters, magazine pouches, Tazer (if certified), handheld radio, body armor, outer vest carrier, and Axon body camera.

JCSO also has a take-home unit program!

JCSO also has a policy allowing beards and tattoos (as long as deemed appropriate)!

JCSO also offers certification pay!

Applicants must possess a current TCOLE Peace Officers license, and be able to pass a background investigation, Physical and mental health evaluation.

To apply: you may download the application on our website @ www.jackcountysheriff.com

Phone number: (940) 567-2161 ask for Chief Doug Angell

Email: dangell@jackcounty.texas.gov

Address: 1432 FM 3344, Jacksboro, TX 76458