

NEW BRAUNFELS POLICE DEPARTMENT WE'RE HIRING PART-TIME POLICE OFFICERS

STILL HAVE A LITTLE BLUE LEFT IN YOU?

Bring your experience, leadership, and commitment to a new part-time opportunity with NBPd.

The New Braunfels Police Department is seeking three Part-Time Police Officers to join our team and continue making a meaningful impact in the community.

This unique opportunity is ideal for experienced law enforcement professionals who want to stay connected to the profession, support public safety, and serve in a flexible part-time capacity. Part-Time Police Officers will provide a visible law enforcement presence at City Hall, City Council meetings, and other City public meetings, while supporting the department's mission of service, safety, and community engagement.

In addition to these assignments, officers may have opportunities to assist with investigative, operational, and special projects based on departmental needs and individual experience.

POSITION HIGHLIGHTS

- Now Hiring – 3 Part-Time Police Officers
- Up to 19 Hours Per Week
- Flexible Schedule
- Maintain an active role in Law Enforcement
- Provide a Professional Presence at City Hall, City Council meetings, and other city public meetings
- Assist with investigative and special assignments

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Current TCOLE Peace Officer License
- Ability to meet all department employment requirements
- Commitment to professionalism, teamwork, and public service

Whether you're retired, nearing retirement, or simply looking for a meaningful way to continue serving, we'd love to have you on the team.

VISIT WWW.NEWBRAUNFELS.GOV/NBPDJOBS FOR MORE INFORMATION

