

Commission Rule 219.13 Retired Peace Officer Reactivation

A retired peace officer's license becomes inactive at the end of the most recent training unit or cycle in which the licensee:

- 1) was not appointed at the end of the training unit or cycle; and
- 2) did not meet the continuing education requirements of §218.3.

A retired inactive peace officer continues to hold the license the officer held at the time the officer last served unless the license was revoked for cause under Section 1701.501.

Applicants must meet the following requirement including submission of:

A sworn affidavit stating:

- (a) the officer honorably retired after not less than a total of 15 years of service as a commissioned officer with one or more state or local law enforcement agencies;
- (b) the officer's license as a commissioned officer was not revoked or suspended for any period during the officer's term of service as a commissioned officer;
- (c) retired from service with such agency, after completing any applicable probationary period of such service, due to a service-connected disability, as determined by such agency;

To meet the current licensing requirements of TCOLE Rule 217.1, you must have a national criminal history records check based on your fingerprints. Included with this application is the Fingerprint Applicant Services of Texas (FAST). Questions about fingerprint process call (512) 936-7700.
