

The City of Bellmead

Domestic Violence Detective $20.00 to 21.50 per hour

Applicant enforces Federal, State, and City laws, rules, regulations, ordinances, and codes, by performing various law enforcement tasks that support law enforcement and crime prevention activities. Performs investigative work primarily related to the requirements set out in the Violence Against Women (VAWA) grant requirement and other special assignments as appropriate; performs a variety of technical and administrative tasks in support of the department. The VAWA Detective is required to interact and cooperate with various state and local agencies in support of the VAWA requirements including training and presentations.

Detectives normally work Monday through Friday, 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, but are subject to after-hours call outs and scheduled after-hours or weekend on-call duty. The ability to conduct investigations and effectively cooperate with other agencies is critical. Working in hazardous or dangerous locations, including violent crime scenes is likely. Emergency response to critical events or backing up patrol on routine calls is required, as appropriate.

A High School Diploma or equivalent is required. Must be licensed as a basic police officer from TCOLE (Texas Commission on Law Enforcement). Investigative experience is preferred. Requires excellent communication skills, and the ability to speak, read, and write fluent English.

Benefits include 100% employer paid employee medical, dental, and basic life, and long-term disability insurance premiums. Paid vacation, holiday, and sick leave available. Participation in the Texas Municipal Retirement System is required, as well as Social Security deductions. Certification, education, and bilingual pay available.

Application for employment MUST be submitted to Human Resources to be considered for employment. Resumes are strongly encouraged but will not be accepted in lieu of an application. Application may be found at <https://bellmead.com/police/page/vawa-detective>
