Nolanville Police Department – Police Officer / Patrol

Nolanville is located in Bell County Texas and borders Belton, Harker Heights, Killeen and Fort Hood. Nolanville touts itself as “A Great Place to Live” and supports a progressive philosophy of civic involvement throughout the community.

The Police Department stresses equal treatment for all citizens and supports its motto of providing services with Integrity and Honesty.

The City is poised for substantial growth and the Police Department is looking for the right individual who is seeking a stable and professional organization they can grow with.

Job Summary:

The Police Officer works under the supervision of a Patrol Sergeant. Officers assigned to the patrol division perform crime prevention and law enforcement tasks on an assigned shift. Patrol Officers are responsible for proactive patrol, traffic enforcement and accident investigations, arresting offenders, responding to calls for assistance or information, and taking reports. Patrol officers secure and investigate crime scenes and must be proficient in physical evidence procedures. Officers prepare and submit their own offense and case reports.

Officers must be comfortable using technology, including mobile data computers, computer-based records management and video systems.

Patrol officers work 12-hour shifts. Shifts rotate every four months.

Requirements

Applicants must possess a high school diploma or GED and a valid Texas Driver’s License. Applicants are expected to be fluent in reading and writing the English language and will be asked to provide a handwritten essay as part of the selection process. Current TCOLE certification is preferred.

Applicants must be a US Citizen and be at least 21 years of age. Veterans must hold an Honorable Discharge from the armed forces of the United States.

Following an initial interview, candidates will complete a detailed Personal History Statement that will provide information for a comprehensive background investigation. Prior to receiving a job offer, applicants must pass an oral review board, pre-employment polygraph examination, psychological examination, drug test and medical/physical screening.

Probationary officers must complete a comprehensive field training program and a six-month probationary period. The Department furnishes uniforms and all duty gear, including sidearm.

The Nolanville Police Department is a full-service, 24 hour a day operation. The City of Nolanville offers competitive pay and benefits, which includes TMRS Retirement, fully paid health insurance for employees, paid holiday, vacation and sick leave, compensatory time and overtime pay, longevity and certification pay.

The City of Nolanville is an equal opportunity employer.