

KNOX CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

902 E. MAIN STREET

KNOX CITY TEXAS, 79729

The CITY OF KNOX CITY is looking for a qualified Police Officer. The Knox City Police Department is a small department dedicated to providing police services to the citizens of Knox City with an estimated population of approximately 1200 people, has a close knit small town community environment.

COMPENSATION:

Yearly Starting Salary: $30,000 - $32,000

Benefits include paid holidays, health insurance, TMRS retirement and assigned patrol vehicle.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The City of Knox City is seeking qualified officer who is professional, self-motivated, proactive and has a sense of “serving and protecting” the community. The department has one full time Police Chief and Police Officer. The Police Officer will work under the direct supervision of the Chief of Police. The officer will patrol, investigate, enforce all laws and provide for the safety of the public and their property. Officer must understand and apply department policies and rules regulations, laws and city ordinances. Officer must be able to prepare written reports and testify in court when needed.

JOB REQUIREMENTS:

- Must hold a current Texas Police Officer License
- Must be a United States Citizen
- Must be a high school graduate or have a GED.
- Must possess a valid driver’s license with a good driving history.
- Must be able to work all shifts, weekends, holidays and be on call at times.
- Must submit and pass a background investigation, psychological examination, in good physical condition, and drug test.
- Prior law enforcement experience preferred but not required.
- Bilingual is a plus but not required.
- Officer must live within the city limits of Knox City.

Interested candidates should submit a resume to Chief Richard Candelaria, email address knoxcitypd99@srcaccess.net. or mail resume to 902 E. Main Street, Knox City Texas 79529. Phone #(940) 658-3414.